Lillian Bell continues to assert that have the badness of their paint. Pos- women are not as bad as they are sibly the assertion might be modified painted; but most people think that to agree that they are as good as they those who are painted at all must are unpainted.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

TIME EXTENDED FOR COMMITTEE

To Report on Gubernatorial Contest.

Agreement is Reached Whereby Sen- ate Will Transact No Business Until March 10.

WAS TAKEN ON YESTERDAY.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 26.—After an ugly war of words in the house that body passed by a strict party vote on a viva voce vote a joint resolution which the senate had passed earlier in the day extending the time for the report of the joint committee on the Stevenson-Deneen governorship contest as to whether there was a prima facie case from March 2 to March 17, owing to Stevenson having been given to March 7 to file a bill of particu- lars by the joint committee at last night's meeting.

Brown, of LaSalle, the Democratic leader, declared that the proceedings of the committee were a farce and that the committee had no intention of giving the Democrats justice. He asked whoever heard of a bill of particu- lars in a chancery proceeding; the petition was the bill of particu- lars. He said there was not the semblance of legal procedure in the meeting of the joint committee yes- terday.

Donahue, Democrat, of Cook coun- ty, declared that Douglas Pattison, of Freeport, was there to testify to 150 ballots in Stephens county being counted for Deneen when they should have been counted for Stevenson, and that Chairman Reynolds, of the joint committee, was asked to swear him but refused to do so.

King, of Knox county, said that Stevenson was represented by able counsel and that Pattison was not bound and gagged, and Stevenson's counsel could have had him talk.

The senate signed a "gentleman's agreement" to transact no business until March 10, consequently all ses- sions to vote for a senator until March 10 will be purely perfunctory.

WRESTLERS

WILL STRUGGLE ON THE MAT AT THE KENTUCKY.

Omaha Man Will Meet "Wild" Joe Collins, and Local Amateurs Will Scuffle.

Not the least interesting event in the athletic tournament at the Ken- tucky theater tonight will be the boxing match between Sam Goodman and Mr. Frogge, local aspirants for the championship. Another locally interesting event is the wrestling match between Robert Kleney, of Cairo, and Leslie Jones, the Paducah champion.

Of course the big attraction is the effort of Bob Peaks, of Omaha, to take the championship honors from Joe Collins, of Canada. They will en- gage in a catch-as-catch-can match, two falls in three.

Notice.

Those holding claims against the estate of the late J. H. Bayer are hereby notified that they should pre- sent same to me, properly certified, as required by law, not later than March 15, 1909. Those indebted to the estate are also requested to make settlement by that date.

DR. V. A. KALTENBRUN, Executor J. H. Bayer Estate, Frank- fort, Ky.

BASKETBALL

GAMES WILL BE PLAYED AT THE EAGLES' GYM TONIGHT.

Four High School Teams Will Contest —Cairo Asks for a Game With High School.

Two games of basketball will be played tonight in the Eagles' gymna- sium by the four teams of the High school, and some fast sport is ex- pected. The first game will be be- tween the first and second teams of the girls, and it will be difficult to pick the winner. The second game will be between the first and second teams of the boys, and a fast game is promised, as the second team won from the first team lads at the last game.

The teams will line up:

First girls—Katherine Rock, cen- ter; Rebecca Smith and Martha Cope, forwards; Nell Cave and Ruth Mc- Chesney, guards.

Second team—Clara Stewart, cen- ter; Henrietta Kahn and Ira Jones, forwards; Clara Smith and Grace Stewart, guards.

The boys will line up:

First team—King, center; Brown- ing and Yarbrough, forwards; Sills and Endriess, guards.

Second, team—Mitchell, center; Gideon and Hughes, forwards; Elliott and Lutenbers, guards.

In addition to the basketball game with the Madisonville High school, which will be arranged, Cairo High school has written for a date. How- ever, it is decided that the game will be played in Cairo March 12 or 13. The game will be a renewal of rivalry between the two High schools. For the past few years there have been no games between the two schools, but since the basketball game has been arranged for it looks favorable towards getting Cairo on the baseball and football schedule again.

MRS. J. M. BRUCE CALLED TO HUSBAND'S BEDSIDE.

By the serious and sudden illness of her husband, Mrs. J. M. Bruce 1032 South Eleventh street, was called to Chattanooga, Tenn., yesterday after- noon. A telegram was received from her this morning stating Mr. Bruce was in a serious condition, and that he would be brought home at once. Mr. Bruce is a traveling salesman for a barber supply company of St. Louis, and several weeks ago was accident- ally shot in the hand while on a trip in Mississippi. His daughter, Miss Margaret Bruce, did not receive the word of the cause of his illness.

During the last fishing season the Illinois River contributed 4,650 tons to the markets of the country. Two- thirds of the catch was carp.
